Fiber Science & Apparel Design Honors Program Application Form

The FSAD Honors Program is for undergraduate students who are undertaking basic or applied research leading to a thesis under the supervision of a faculty member in the Department of Fiber Science & Apparel Design.

An Honors Thesis may take many forms, including traditional, written scholarship, studio work, and exhibition.

Registration must take place by the beginning of the first semester of your junior year.

1) Date	2) Name
3) E-mail	4) Optio	on
Anticipated date for completion	on of thesis
Anticipated date of graduatio	on
Committee Members (please	PRINT names):
Faculty Honors Program I	Director (DUS)
FSAD Academic Mentor
Other (optional)

In l'action of Faculty Comment
Indication of Faculty Support
By signing below, faculty indicate their wil	lingness to serve on the student's
By signing below, faculty indicate their wil honors research committee.
By signing below, faculty indicate their wil honors research committee. Faculty Honors Program Director (DUS
By signing below, faculty indicate their wil honors research committee. Faculty Honors Program Director (DUS	S) Date
By signing below, faculty indicate their wil honors research committee. Faculty Honors Program Director (DUS Signature of	S) Date gnature
By signing below, faculty indicate their wil honors research committee. Faculty Honors Program Director (DUS Signature (DUS)	S) Date gnature
By signing below, faculty indicate their wil honors research committee. Faculty Honors Program Director (DUS Signature of	S) Date gnature Date